

National TB Conference

Department for Environment
Food & Rural Affairs

National TB Conference

Wednesday
29th November 2023
Sixways Stadium, Worcester

BOOK
NOW

A collaborative approach towards a TB free future

The TB Advisory Service is proud to be hosting the second national TB conference. This is a unique opportunity to bring together all those involved in TB control ensuring a collaborative approach.

A collaborative approach towards a TB free future

Time	Topic	Speaker
09:00	Registration and Refreshments
10:00 Morning Session Sponsored by IDEXX
10:00	TB Eradication Strategy 10 years in. What have we achieved?	Lord Benyon, Defra Minister of State
10:30	Working collaboratively to achieve a TB free future (Social Science)	Ruth Little, Defra
11:00	Co-design of future policies including cattle vaccination	James Wood, bTB Partnership
11:30	Panel discussion Q & A	Bridget Taylor, BCVA President Tom Bradshaw, NFU Deputy President James Wood, bTB Partnership Ruth Little, Defra Christoph Egli, IDEXX Director Associate of Medical Affairs
12:00 - 13:30 Lunch
13:30	TB Control at a local level	Helen Forester, NFU County Advisor Brendan Griffin, Pembrokehire bTB Project Chris Addison, Cumbrian Dairy Farmer Oxfordshire Cluster Representatives Tony Roberts, APHA
14:00	A collaborative approach to managing a TB breakdown Sponsored by Enterplex	Keith Cutler, Synergy Farm Health
14:30	Panel discussion Q & A	Local Stakeholders
15:00 Break & Refreshments
15:30	Why should we care for a TB free future?	Jude McCann, Farm
16:00	Summary & Close	Abi Reader, Deputy Pr
All speakers are subject to change 16:30 Finish & Depart

Scan the QR code to book your tickets
now!

W: tbas.org.uk